

FictStream Q3 2025 Executive Report

Executive Summary

FictStream Q3 2025 delivered record watch-minute growth of 23% YoY. Stellar Run became the fastest-growing title in platform history, driven by aggressive social media marketing and a viral recommendation loop in the 18-34 demographic. Comedy titles underperformed by 12% versus forecast, primarily in the South and Central regions. Premium subscriptions grew 8% while basic-tier churn rose to 4.2%.

Top Performing Titles

1. Stellar Run - 2.1M watch hours, 89% completion rate, 4.7/5 avg rating. Spike in Q4 driven by influencer campaigns across East and West regions. 2. Dark Orbit - 1.8M watch hours, 82% completion. Strong thriller audience in 35-44 segment. 3. Last Kingdom - 1.6M watch hours, drama genre leader in North region.

Genre Analysis

Sci-Fi and Thriller genres show strongest momentum with 31% and 19% QoQ growth respectively. Comedy declined 12%: audience surveys indicate content quality concerns and poor pacing. Drama holds steady at 15% of total watch hours. Action genre spiked in Q3 driven by the Rising Storm release.

Marketing Effectiveness

Social media spend ROI was 3.2x vs 2.1x for display advertising. Influencer campaigns for Stellar Run generated 12M impressions at $0.004 CPC. Email marketing shows declining open rates (18% vs 24% prior year). Recommendation: shift 20% of display budget to social/influencer for Q4.

Regional Highlights

East region (Tokyo, Seoul, Singapore) leads engagement with avg completion rate of 0.87. West region (New York, LA, Chicago) drives highest revenue at $2.1M quarterly. South region underperforms on comedy titles; drama and action perform well. Central region (Dubai, Istanbul, Cairo) is fastest-growing at 34% QoQ viewer growth.

Leadership Recommendations

1. Greenlight two additional Sci-Fi productions for 2026 H1 to capitalize on genre momentum. 2. Commission a comedy content quality review - current slate not resonating with target demographic. 3. Increase influencer marketing budget by 25% for Q1 2026. 4. Invest in retention initiatives for basic-tier subscribers (personalization, exclusive previews). 5. Expand localized content for Central region given its growth trajectory.
